Why choose a Washington University Physician?

LEADING ACADEMIC MEDICAL CENTER

Washington University Physicians is among the largest academic practices in the nation, with 1,800+ expert physicians representing 76+ specialties, including primary care. Our physicians are members of the medical school faculty, educating tomorrow's leaders and shaping the future of medicine.

REPUTATION OF EXCELLENCE

Washington University Clinical Associates are a select group of providers specializing in primary care. We share the same commitment to excellence you associate with Washington University specialists and St. Louis Children's Hospital. When needed, we connect patients to the advanced technology and consultative support of both institutions.
